

R302—AQUATIC MANAGEMENT

Register for Summer Two Session Intensive Session IV

Dates: 07/09/2010 - 07/27/2010

[ 3 credits ]

Weeks 1 & 2: Online learning module and project prepared independently

Week 3: In Class and off-site field experiences

* Flexible learning format for traditional and non traditional students

Course Objectives:

- ≈ Distinguish and interpret the characteristics unique to the aquatic environment
- ≈ Analyze the characteristics of available aquatic resource programs
- ≈ Effectively evaluate personnel, programs and risk management aspects of aquatics
- ≈ Apply concepts to a variety of aquatic settings
- ≈ Comprehend concepts of management and their relationship to the aquatic setting
- ≈ Identify necessary resources for successful implementation of aquatic based programs
- ≈ Demonstrate the ability to design a logical and effective aquatics operations manual

Course Instructor:

Bill Ramos is a Senior Lecturer in the School of H.P.E.R.'s Department of Recreation, Park, and Tourism Studies and brings over 25 years of experience in the area of aquatics management to the course. Bill is currently the Director of the IU Aquatic Institute and has also been Director and Manager of IU's Outdoor Aquatic Center for over 15 years.

To Register:

- ≈ Currently enrolled IU students follow normal class enrollment procedures
  - ≈ Continuing education students please contact the School of Continuing Studies at 812-855-2292
- Or email: scs@indiana.edu

Additional Course Fee: $30 [to cover cost of transportation and entrance to off-site facilities]

Contact :Aquatic Institute: aquatics@indiana.edu
Aquatics Institute HPER #104 1025 E Seventh Street Bloomington IN 47405